Vero Beach, Fla. – The Silver Tones Chorus of the Senior Resource Association will perform its annual holiday concert at First Presbyterian Church in the McAfee Hall at 520 Royal Palm Blvd. in Vero Beach on December 4 at 7:00PM.

The festive concert will feature music and a little history from all of the great holiday films over the years including White Christmas, Elf, A Chipmunk Christmas, The Polar Express, and many others.

During the concert, guests will enjoy hot cocoa with fixings, coffee and desserts. A 50/50 raffle will also take place at the event.

The 80-member senior chorus group, sponsored by the Leo and Peggy Pierce Family Foundation, is conducted by Jacob Craig, current Director of Music and Arts at the First Presbyterian Church.

Tickets for the event are $20 and are open to the public. All proceeds from the concert will benefit the SRA to continue to provide services to seniors in Indian River County.

For any questions or further details on this event, please call Kate Lanahan at 772-469-3148.

A special thank you to the Leo and Peggy Pierce Family Foundation for their generous support each year.

The Silver Tones Chorus is a Senior Resource Association program that began in 2007. It was created to give older adults a fun and meaningful musical outlet that encourages their unique talents, and provides a service to our community.
